ARCLIGHT CLOSSES SIXTH FUND
WITH $5.6 BILLION IN COMMITMENTS

BOSTON – (July 29, 2015) – Arclight Capital Partners, LLC, one of the leading firms focused on energy infrastructure investments, announced yesterday the final closing of its latest fund, Arclight Energy Partners Fund VI, L.P.

The fund closed with $5.575 billion in commitments, exceeding its $4 billion target and initial $5 billion hard cap. Arclight’s previous fund closed in 2011 with $3.3 billion of commitments. Arclight has now raised over $15 billion globally since the firm was founded in 2001.

“We are grateful for the support we’ve received from both our existing and new limited partners who share our view that today’s energy landscape presents a highly attractive opportunity,” said Daniel Revers, Arclight’s managing partner and co-founder.

“The North American energy market is experiencing a once in a generation transformation that is bringing unprecedented change across the entire energy complex. We believe the insights, networks, and resources we’ve developed over the past 15 years across diverse market cycles will help Arclight Fund VI take advantage of a particularly exciting and complex environment,” Mr. Revers added.

Arclight is led by seven partners, including Mr. Revers, Robb Turner, Ted Burke, Kevin Crosby, Jake Erhard, Mark Tarini, and Carter Ward. Fundraising was managed by the firm’s investor relations team of Matt Nelson, Ross Murphy, and Ashley Nahmias.
